THERE'S OIL IN IOWA

BLANCHARD IS SOMEWHAT EXCITED OVER DEVELOPMENTS.

GOOD OIL DISCOVERED

Tests Will Be Made to See if It is Commercial Oil in Paying Quantities.

Blanchard, Ia., has discovered oil and has ample proof that a large pool of oil is beneath the surface of that town. The prospects seem favorable for an early development of the oil. Blanchard is the first town northwest of Elmo on the Wabash. The following is what the State Line Herald in this week's issue says:

The few developments at the oil well is causing more interest each day, and proving to the people that oil in this vicinity is no longer imagination, but a fact.

In order that proof as to where the great amount of oil comes from, the well was pumped dry Monday, and water taken from the tube which extends to the rock 150 feet below the well proper. This tube goes down to the artesian basin below, causing a continual flow of water into the main well. Water taken from this tube to the amount of a pintful, after setting a few moments, showed a one-eighth inch of oil had arose to the top, proving a large per cent of oil.

Water taken from the tube at different times showed different percentages of oil, but all tests have more fully proven that oil does exist at no great depth in this vicinity.

After these investigations had been made, the large tank was examined. In this tank was about four inches of oil, which would make about fifty barrels, all of which had accumulated during the three weeks intervening between this time and when the tank was drained. This is exclusive of several times that amount carried away by engines taking water at the tank, thus proving that a great amount of oil lies below the surface.

Engineers report that water taken from the tank and used in their engines shows as high as three inches of oil in the water gauges after a short run, and for this reason will not take water at Blanchard if they can avoid it. This is further proof that oil in paying quantities awaits the man who will go down after it.

While the oil has not as yet been sufficiently analyzed to give any definite statement as to its value, it is said to closely resemble the celebrated Mecca oil, taken at the wells in Mecca, O., which is unsurpassed as a lubricant oil, and also produces a medicinal property which is very valuable.

This oil has an odor similar to coal oil, but it does not resemble it in its crude form, as this oil comes from the ground apparently partially refined and ready for use, both for burning in lamps and as a valuable machine oil. It burns as readily and freely in lamps as coal oil, and produces a brilliant light.

While one process of refining petroleum is with water, it is very probable that this oil goes through a refining process by coming up through the water on its way to the surface.

After standing a while another kind of oil, evidently of lighter weight, apparently separates from the bulk of oil and rises to the top, forming a skim over it, thus proving that there are different properties in it which will take a thorough analysis to determine.

It is also noted that a large amount of a white substance has accumulated in the tank, which is supposed to be paraffin, a valuable substance, that is easily separated from crude oil.

Men from different parts of the country have called at the well and carried away many samples. One man from Tarkio offered financial aid any time that a company would be formed to prospect. Such a company will be formed if analysis shows that it is a commercial oil that can be marketed.

A report just received from a sample sent to Chicago is that this oil contains a greater per cent of gasoline than any yet discovered.

M. Nusbaum returned Friday morning from St. Louis, where he attended the state grand lodge meeting of the Knights of Pythias.

WONDERFUL RECORD

IS MADE BY A HEN IN NATIONAL EGG LAYING CONTEST.

260 EGGS IN 11 MONTHS

The Contest at Mountain Grove Will End November 1, and Another One Will Start the 15th.

A national egg laying contest, with the state of Missouri acting as referee, is drawing to a close at Mountain Grove, Mo., with more than six hundred hens in the race, after a laying marathon which has lasted almost a year. More than thirty varieties of poultry from many sections of the United States and some from Canada are entered.

The contest, which began November 1, 1911, will close November 1, with many remarkable scores in prospect. A White Plymouth Rock hen has a credit of 260 eggs in eleven months, and if the bird keeps up the pace the achievement will stand out as one of the best, if not the best, ever officially recorded. A hen which lays two hundred eggs in a year is in an extremely fast class.

Great has been the interest over the country in the egg laying contest here that a second national contest to begin November 15 has been arranged under the auspices of the Missouri state poultry board, to continue a year. Seven hundred birds have been entered. They come from England and Canada as well as from over the United States.

Information of great value to poultry raisers in feeding, breeding, housing and general poultry management are resulting from the contests. The knowledge gained will be published in a bulletin to be issued by the Missouri poultry board.

It has been found as a result of the contest that strain rather than breed is the thing which counts in poultry. It is the laying strain which produces the eggs. No particular breed has shown pre-eminence. Good results have come from a system of feeding and poultry management adopted at the poultry experiment station.

Twenty-nine hens have laid more than two hundred eggs in eleven months. Next to the White Plymouth Rock which laid 260 eggs in eleven months is a Barred Plymouth Rock, with a record of 239 eggs. Then comes a Rhode Island Red with a score of 238 eggs. Other birds with high averages for the eleven months are: A Rhode Island Red, 238 eggs; an Ancona, 230 eggs; a White Leghorn, 224 eggs; a Barred Plymouth Rock, 220 eggs; a White Wyandotte, 216 eggs; a Silver Wyandotte, 215 eggs; a White Orpington, 213 eggs; a Golden Wyandotte, 209 eggs.

The Missouri poultry experiment station at Mountain Grove is the largest in the United States, although established less than two years. T. E. Quisenberry, who took charge of the station, concluded that the "goods" delivered by the hen, rather than the beauty of her coat and perfection of her feathers, was the measure of the fowl's real value. So he started the national egg laying contest, whose first year has proven a success beyond all expectations. Egg laying contests in the United States represent a new departure in promoting the utility of poultry. They have become a regular institution in Australia, where they have done much for the poultry industry.

GREATEST THINGS TALKED GOOD ROADS

HOPKINS MINISTER GETS VIEWS OF HIS CONGREGATION.

LOVE, HOME AND HEALTH A BOND ISSUE DISCUSSED

Lead in the Replies to His Question, "What Are the Three Greatest Things in Life?"

Rev. H. M. Baker, pastor of the First Christian church of Hopkins, says the Journal, has just completed a work which has aroused great interest in the town and which proves that Hopkins is alive in trying to better conditions. For the last two weeks the pastor has been gathering together the opinions of Hopkinsites on the "Three Greatest Things in Life." Quite a large number of the residents "voted," and last Sunday night the church was crowded to its utmost capacity with an interested audience to hear the opinions read and discussed by Rev. Baker, whose talks are always interesting and edifying.

After the votes had been counted and the different subjects classified, the pastor gave a talk on the various answers.

Here is the list that was submitted: Life, Liberty, Obedience to parents, home, church, Power and love of Jesus, Faith, Bible, friends, education, love, see children raised right, hope, honesty, children, will of God, health, Christianity, mother, truth, loyalty, cheerfulness, to live right, nature, labor.

According to the votes, love, home, and health are the three greatest blessings in life—love receiving 16 votes, home 15 and health 13.

In discussing love, Rev. Baker declared that it always gives and always gives the best. Love enables and always demands growth and concentration. It prompts to the consummation of its power—the sacrifice of its power—the sacrifice of itself.

Love's the essence of all things. 'Tis from love that beauty springs. 'Twas by love creation first Into glorious beauty burst. Spirit sweet—all else above—Love is God since God is love.

Love with all your heart and soul; Love with eye and ear and touch. That's the moral of the whole. You can never love too much.

Love is life's end; an end but never ending;

All joys, all sweets, all happiness awarding.

Love's life's wreath (ne'er spent but ever spending),

Love's life's reward, rewarded in rewarding.

Then from thy wretched heart fond care remove.

Ah, shouldst thou live but once love's sweets to prove,

Thou wilt not love to live unless thou live to love.

He spoke of health as the greatest gift to mankind—reading the following lines from Tomson:

Of what avail the largest gift of heaven,

When drooping health and spirits go amiss?

How tasteless then whatever then be given,

Health is the vital principle of bliss.

In speaking of home, Rev. Baker gave the following reason why it is so powerful. Home, he declared, is the place of sacred memories—father, mother, pictures of childhood, etc. It's the palace of inspiration—many a boy having been helped to places of honor and trust by the sweet memories of home. It's the palace of peace and rest—"home, sweet home."

The world moves on, its progress brings.

Grand reforms, undreamed of things, But nothing modern can fill the place Of the dear old home and mother's face.

With the same letter heaven and home begin,

And the words dwell together in the mind,

For they who would a home in heaven win

Must first a heaven in home begin to find.

During the evening two special solos were given by Miss Cleo Kline, "Home Sweet Home," and "Love's Old Sweet Song," both of which were very beautifully and sympathetically rendered.

The service did not conclude until 10 o'clock, but the large audience did not grow weary, all present seeming to enter heartily into the spirit of the great meeting.

MEMBERS OF LIVE STOCK AND AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION WANT

STATE HIGHWAY ENGINEER WILL MAKE ESTIMATE OF CULVERTS NEEDED AND THE COST OF PUTTING THEM IN.

W. C. Davidson, deputy state highway engineer, who has been making an inspection of the roads and bridges of Polk township, met Wednesday evening with representatives of the Nodaway County Live Stock and Agricultural association and directors of the Commercial club to talk over plans for the improvement of the roads and bridges in this township.

Mr. Davidson reported that in company with J. F. Roelofson and Paul Sisson he had inspected over seventy miles, covering all the four quarters of the township. From the trips made he figured that there are over 300 miles of road in the township, and that the culverts, including little and big, will average three and a half to the mile. Some of these he had found good, some that would do for two, three or four years, and some that are very bad. In some places he said that by proper grading two small culverts could be replaced by one, and in many places a vast improvement could be made by filling and cutting down the heavy grades.

Mr. Davidson had taken numerous notes on his trips, and from these he will make a careful estimate of what is needed and the cost of the same and report during next week. He would not venture an estimate at this meeting, but said that the average cost of culverts such as would be put in by a township, say from one to four feet, is about $75.

Estimating the mileage at 1,000 miles and the average culverts at three and a half to the mile, there would be more than a thousand culverts in the township. Some of these perhaps would come under county jurisdiction and some would not need to be replaced at once, but the total cost of putting them all on a permanent basis would be not less than $75,000. While this was only a guess and a real estimate is not yet at hand, it was estimated by those present that the amount required to make the desired improvements would range anywhere from $100,000 to $150,000.

It was agreed among those present that the only feasible way of raising the amount necessary would be by a bond issue, such as has been made by a number of counties and townships in this state already. The last legislature passed a bill offering to the counties and townships one dollar for every one that was appropriated in this way for road work. So many have taken advantage of the offer, however, that basis there is no question but what that the state is having difficulty in making good its offer. However, on a reasonable bond issue could be carried.

The improvement scheme is strongly endorsed by the County Live Stock and Agricultural association, and would involve the improvement of both main traveled and the lesser traveled roads as well. It would be the idea to put the whole township in first class traveling condition ultimately. By using the money realized from the bond issue for building cement culverts and leveling down the most needed places, it is figured that the usual road tax could all be devoted to building good and permanent roads and eventually bring the general condition up to an ideal standard.

It was suggested that a rock crusher could be put in and operated profitably and numerous other incidental questions were discussed, including the proper time for submitting such proposition and the proper method of procedure.

Those present seemed to be well pleased with the report of the state representative and enthusiastic for a movement toward better roads and bridges. Nothing definite could be done until the estimate is made and received from Mr. Davidson, which he promised would be within the next week. After that is received other meetings will be held and the matter will likely assume definite shape.

Visiting Parents.

Mrs. Memrie Miller of Mathis, Texas, and Mrs. John Frankum and three children of Wellington, Kan., arrived Friday noon on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holt, west of Maryville, and their sister, Mrs. David Munn of East First street.

A UNION MEETING.

Various Societies of the Protestant Churches Will Meet Sunday Evening.

The various societies of the Protestant churches will meet Sunday evening in the auditorium of the First M. E. church at 6:30 o'clock. The subject of the evening will be "Christian Sociability," and the leader will be Miss Mary Evans. H. J. Becker will give a solo, and a quartet composed of Misses Ilene Kemp, Izaro Mutz, Jeannette Mutz and Amy Clark will sing. Several talks will be given by representatives from the other societies. The union services will close at 7:30 o'clock, in time for the regular services at the churches.

ON A LONG WALK

FROM LENOX, IA., TO KANSAS CITY OVERLAND.

MAKE EXPENSES ON ROAD

Miss Mabel Brown and Miss June Giles Are Thoroughly Enjoying Novel Experience.

Miss Mabel Brown and Miss June Giles of Lenox, Ia., arrived in Maryville Thursday evening about 5 o'clock over the Saints Highway and stopped over night at the Linville.

The young ladies are walking from Lenox to Kansas City by the way of the Saints highway, simply for a much needed outing from their employment. Not wishing to bear the expense of a railway trip, they agreed on this manner of a vacation several weeks ago. They are making their expenses by taking orders for dustless dusters and electric silver polishing cloths. They took several orders in Maryville Friday morning before starting out of the city, about 10 o'clock. They are meeting with pleasant experiences along the way, and are treated finely wherever they stop. They spent Wednesday night in Pickering, and, of course, the news of their presence and the manner of their travel was soon telephoned about the country, and when they came near a farm house below Pickering Thursday about noon a boy from the home came out and invited them to stop for dinner. He was so cordial in extending the invitation that they accepted. When they arrived at the house they found a company of seven men preparing to partake of dinner.

The boy told his father of the company he had invited to take dinner with them and they were made most welcome. The mother had left a well prepared dinner for her husband and son and father, and the extra men that were coming to help with some farm work, and had gone to spend the day with a neighbor. They were asked to remain until the lady of the house should come home, but as her arrival would be late in the afternoon they concluded to continue their walk to Maryville.

The young women are fine looking and well dressed. They wore dark gray jacket suits and black beaver hats, and carried small knapsacks. The ladies on whom they called in our city Friday morning in making their sales were impressed with their nice appearance and refinement.

WAS A GOOD SALE.

Good Prices Received For Hogs at the Garrett and Kemp Poland-China Sale.

The Poland-China hog sale of W. O. Garrett and M. D. Kemp held Thursday afternoon at Mr. Garrett's farm was a success and good prices were received. Fifty hogs were sold and the males averaged $26.25, while the females brought $22.75. All of the pigs were spring pigs and not over seven months old, and were all sold to Nodaway county farmers. R. P. Hosmer cried the sale.

The Baptist Meetings.

Interest is steadily increasing in the meetings at the First Baptist church. The minister, Rev. Miles Smith, preached his best sermon so far Thursday night, his subject, "The Valley of Decision." One professed faith in Christ and was received for baptism, and several others are personally interested.

The subject for the sermon tonight will be "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

The afternoon meetings are very earnest and the spirit of prayer seems to be increasing. All are invited to attend.

GOD IS NOT MOCKED

REV. RANDOLPH PREACHED GOOD SERMON LAST NIGHT.

A MAN REAPS AS HE SOWS

Caring for Estates and Neglecting the Children an Unpardonable Sin, Says the Minister.

Last night at the Southern Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. J. D. Randolph, preached on the subject, "God Is Not Mocked." A good congregation was present. The text was a familiar one. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap."

The speaker said in part: In this text we have set forth both the nature and the method of God's punishment for sin. Sin carries with it its own punishment. Sin puts into motion a certain series of acts the influence of which goes on in ever increasing circles. It multiplies like seed planted in good soil. With all its awful consequences it comes back to him who sets it in

Obituary.

Robert William Stonehocker was born in Ohio, April 25, 1847. Died at Guilford, Mo., Oct. 15, 1912. Age 65 years, 5 months, 20 days.

He came to Nodaway county, Missouri, in 1880, and has resided near Barnard up to the time of his departure. He was first married to Sarah Rasco, and to this union were born four children, but only one survives to mourn the loss, namely, Mrs. Oran Lanning.

His first wife having died in 1896 he was again married to Lola Job of Stanberry, Mo. To this union were born two children, Murrel Pauline and Bruce Fulton. All survive him.

He lived for many years on his farm, north of Barnard, but on account of failing health he was persuaded to retire from the farm and move to Guilford in hope that rest might again restore him to health. For time this seemed possible, but on the 23d day of August he was taken sick and gradually grew worse until 9:30 o'clock p.m. of October 15, when his spirit took its flight to God, who gave it. He united with the M. E. church in 1881 at Barnard. The funeral services were conducted at Barnard by the Rev. W. E. Royston, October 17th, and his remains were laid to rest in a cemetery nearby.

He leaves his wife, three children, also one half-brother, as well as many other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Mrs. Joseph Wirth and children of Clyde, who have been visiting Misses Mary and Hannah Shea, returned home Friday.

Miss Leah Paulson of Story City, Ia., is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. P. Reuland.

Dinner Guests at "Fairview."

Mrs. J. T. Linville was the hostess of a 12 o'clock dinner Friday. Her guests included Mrs. Milton Rittenour and Miss Eva Rittenour and their guests, Mrs. J. Wesley Jones and Mrs. Roy Buck of Loveland, Col., and Mrs. G. B. Holmes.

Was a Lovely Reception.

One hundred and seventy-five guests thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful reception given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles T. Bell, for it was a rare October day. Assisting the hostess in receiving were Mrs. Lafe C. Allender of Atlantic, Ia., who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Wallis, Sr., and Mrs. Ernest Alexander of Medicine Lodge, Kan., a guest at the home of her father, Joseph Jackson, Sr. The guests passed on to the library from the reception hall, where they were served hot chocolate and sandwiches by Miss Bertha Beal and Mrs. Victor I. Moore, assisted by Miss Elise Jackson and Miss Laura Barmann. In the dining room, where ice cream and cake were served, Mrs. J. F. Colby, Mrs. Will Wallis, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr., and Mrs. George B. Baker, presided, assisted by Miss Mildred Robinson, Miss Ruby Curnutt and Miss Geneva Wilfley. The hostesses in the parlors were Mrs. James B. Robinson, Mrs. J. D. Richey, Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, Mrs. R. G. Sanders and Mrs. W. A. Rickenbode. The rooms were beautiful in their decorations of cosmos, chrysanthemums and ferns. The colors of yellow, white and green prevailed in the dining room.

Entertained Neighboring Club.

The Dew Drop Inn club very delightfully entertained the Ladies' Intellectual club at the home of Mrs. Albert Orme, Wednesday, October 16, between the hours of 2 and 5 in the afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harry Farrar. Roll call was responded to by memory gems. The business session was set aside and an address of welcome given by Mrs. Claude Moore, that would make any visitor from anywhere feel at home. Mrs. Moore concluded with the following lines:

"We welcome you, intellectual; may our meeting be effectual. And unless we burst our tires, with so many live wires, these two clubs are sure to win, the Intellectual and Dew Drop Inn."

A splendid program was rendered, consisting of readings, declamations and music. Mrs. Elmer Baker recited these verses:

"In 1911, one summer's day, at Elmer Baker's, across the way, a little band of women came to seek the way of fun and fame. Their lives were filled with toil and care, and they sought a way by which to share each other's trials, and with all their skill these verses:

The Ramblers Club.

The Ramblers club was out Thursday evening gathering autumn leaves with which to decorate its house meeting, which will take place Friday evening with Miss Amy Clark at the Linville hotel. The Ramblers have selected the violet for their club flower, and during their rambles Thursday evening they found a large bunch of them near the Wabash trestle. The members of the club are Mary Lewis, Vella Booth, Olivette Godsey, Lucile Holmes, ViJune Colden, Brownie Helpley, Amy Clark and Marie Hopper.

Will Attend State Conference.

Mrs. E. G. Oscar went to Kansas City Friday morning to visit her mother, Mrs. M. A. Umethum. Mrs. Oscar will remain until after the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution to be held in Kansas City the last of October. Miss Elise Jackson, Miss Brownie Toel, Mrs. C. T. Bell and Mrs. John Cameron expect to attend this meeting.

The Ramblers Club.

The social given Thursday night by the young ladies of St. Patrick's church parish in the church hall was largely attended and was quite a successful social affair. Games were played and Miss Charlotte Murkin won the first prize and Miss Josephine Keeler the second prize. A splendid lunch was served. During the evening the lucky number that won the white wool shawl made by Mrs. Adolph Lippman was drawn by Dennis Collins, Jr. The number was 109. Mrs. Lippman sold chances on the shawl amounting to $32.35, which went into the treasury of St. Patrick's parish school.

somebody's life with joy to fill. And they in solemn conclave sat, and some said this and some said that, but all declared 'would be no sin to say to each one, 'Dew Drop Inn.' So Wednesday's at 2 p.m. we meet, to talk and sing and friends to greet, and care and trouble from each soul like clouds before sunshine seems to roll. But what's this we hear? A deafening growl like the roll of a storm or a panther's howl! 'Tis the voice of our husbands in loud hubbub, saying, 'We, too, must go to that club.' So, to keep them in temper nice and sweet, we changed the time for the club to meet. And from November chill 'till April, warm and bright, our meetings must come on Thursday night. When we sent the 'T' club an invitation, did you not hear that howl of desolation? 'Twas those men again, who will not remember, that soon will come the month of November. But we told them quick to stop that row, for we couldn't have them around anyhow; but to stay at home and do their work, for it was not right their duty to shirk. So here we are this beautiful day, with nothing but kindly words to say to the Intellectual club, who are neat as pins, and our own dear ones, the Dew Drop Inns."

At the conclusion of the program the president called for remarks. Mrs. Rufus Ringgold responded on behalf of the Intellectual club, telling of their appreciation of the day's meeting and of the neighborly spirit that is manifested by such gatherings, and closed by saying:

"Of all the places we have been, the best of all is the Dew Drop Inn. It didn't rain and thunder and fuss as it did when you folks met with us. We were very sorry when you went away, but contented ourselves with thoughts of today, when we could be together, as we have been, and enjoy ourselves with the Dew Drop Inns."

A delightful two-course luncheon was served, the club colors, pink and white, carried out in the ices and cakes, and each one present responded to a toast.

Those present were: Mrs. Fletcher Dalby, Mrs. John Sprague, Mrs. Claud Moore, Mrs. Albert Orme, Mrs. Elmer Oliver Jones, Mrs. Harry Farrar, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Nathaniel Orme, Mrs. Albert Gorton, Mrs. Ben Ingles, Mrs. Sam Yeager, Mrs. Ben Yeager, Mrs. Sylvester Massie, Mrs. Rufus Ringgold, Mrs. Clarence Pope, Mrs. John Ringgold, Mrs. Laura Gillispie, Mrs. Earl Dowling.

Stomach All Indigestion Goes.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know it is needless to have a bad stomach.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. It should be kept handy, should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night it is there to give the quickest, surest relief known.—Advertisement.

Death of a Child.

Dora L. Tripp, a year and a half old died Thursday night at 10:45 o'clock, after a few days' illness, of cholera infantum. DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR A BAD LIVER OR SLUGGISH BOWELS

THIS GENTLE, EFFECTIVE FRUIT LAXATIVE THOROUGHLY CLEANS YOUR STOMACH, LIVER AND 30 FEET OF BOWELS OF SOUR BILE, POISONS, GASES AND CLOGGED-UP WASTE.

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gassy, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness, pimples—take delicious Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowel.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs tonight means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without griping, nausea or weakness. It means a cheery day tomorrow—many bright days thereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself, for luscious figs, senna and aromatics cannot injure anyone.

This remarkable fruit preparation is a wonderful stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic, the safest and most positive ever devised.

The day of violent purgatives, such as calomel, pills, salts and castor oil is past. They were all wrong. You got relief, but at what a cost! They acted by flooding the bowels with fluids, but these fluids were digestive juices. Syrup of Figs embody only harmless laxatives, which act in a natural way. It does what right food would do—what eating lots of fruit and what plenty of exercise will do for the liver, stomach and bowels.

Be sure you get the old reliable and genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back, with scorn, any Fig Syrup imitation recommended as "just as good."—Advertisement.

A MEASUREMENT OF MERIT.

Maryville Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Maryville. Is not the testimony of strangers, But the endorsement of Maryville people.

That's the kind of proof given here—The statement of Maryville citizen, J. A. Murphy, 805 East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I suffered considerably from kidney trouble and lumbago. I got up in the morning so stiff and lame, with such a dull aching across my loins that I could hardly do my work. I suffered a great deal from kidney trouble whenever I caught cold, and the kidney secretions were dark and filled with sediment. My health failed and I was miserable, when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box of this remedy at Love's drug store (now Love & Gaugh's drug store), and it went at once to the seat of my trouble and corrected it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Advertisement.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

WRITES FROM BALKANS.

Miss Kate Moss, Teaching in Bulgaria, Describes Preparation to Fight the Turks.

To Dr. H. E. Moss of Kansas City, formerly of Maryville, comes the very breath of war which is threatening to involve Europe, in the form of a letter from Miss Kate E. Moss, a sister of the physician, who left Kansas City for Bulgaria August 23.

Writing from Lavetch, Miss Moss tells the following story of the preparation for war:

"Conditions here are most unsettled. Word has come that Turkey has declared war and come into Bulgarian territory. Bulgaria has a standing army of 400,000, but is drafting every service. Five thousand recruits able-bodied men of reasonable age are expected in Lavetch today. These are to be quartered in this town, which has about 7,000 people.

"We have moved entirely out of one of the buildings which we occupied. Our old rooms are to be given to the soldiers. They also have the use of a small school building.

"Policemen are forbidding the sale of bread and flour to the people of the city. The banks, which belong to the government, are refusing to honor any checks. There are seventy of us, counting the girls, the teachers, the cook and the two men and their families. We have a lot of potatoes, some hogs, some pumpkins and apples on which to draw if necessary.

"We must remain here for awhile, because the government owns the railroads and is moving no trains save for soldiers. No freight has been moved for some weeks. Today I doubt if any private party could get any conveyance to carry them to the station.

"At Pleven every horse, mule and donkey has been called for and the best will be used by the army."

Miss Moss comments upon the patriotism of the people, and adds that taxes are very high in Bulgaria.

The Girl From Rector's Coming.

"The Girl from Rector's," that happy concoction of mirth and wit will be the attraction at the Empire theater on Wednesday evening, October 23. No more genuinely funny and really meritorious mixture of farce and music has been given in recent years. Its New York success was in the nature of a furore, where for three hundred nights it packed Weber's Music hall, a theater noted for its critical cosmopolitan following. A thoroughly adequate production is promised for this season's tour, and the engagement can be looked forward to with enjoyment by those who care for the very best in theatrical offerings.

Visitor From the Philippines.

Mrs. Guerdon O'Dougherty and son, John O'Dougherty, of Bedford, Iowa, and their guests, Mrs. Frank Sperbeck and little daughter, Stana, of Manila, P. I., spent Friday in Maryville on business. Mrs. Sperbeck and her little girl came for the purpose of spending a few days with her childhood friend, Mrs. F. B. Dinsmore of South Buchanan street, but Mrs. Dinsmore left Maryville the first of the week on a visit to her sisters in Atchison, Kan., and Kansas City. Mrs. Sperbeck expects to return to Manila before long. She went to St. Joseph Friday evening to visit her brother, Henry O'Dougherty. She was compelled to return to the United States a year ago on account of the illness of her little girl, who was unable to stand the climate of Manila. She has been taking treatment in a hospital of St. Paul, Minn., and is now thoroughly well and will be able to return. Mrs. Sperbeck's husband is first Lieutenant of a United States army scouting company stationed at Manila. She has two other brothers living at Bedford, Patrick and Guerdon O'Dougherty.

Case Set for Next Week.

United States Deputy Marshal Smith of St. Joseph was in Maryville Thursday afternoon interviewing Miss Lottie Pool, who is in the city jail here serving out her time as a result of jumping her bond. The white slavery charge against Ben Carson is to come up in St. Joseph next week, and the woman here is alleged to be connected with it.

The noted Rabbi Hirsch had arisen to give his seat to a lady, but before she could take it a burly young fellow slid into it. The rabbi looked very meaningfully at him, and, after an uncomfortable silence, the young fellow finally blurted out: "Well, what are you grinnin' at me for? Want to eat me? Eh?" "No," calmly replied the rabbi, "I am forbidden to eat you—I am a Jew."

Returned From Oklahoma.

T. L. Wadley returned Wednesday night from a two weeks' pleasure trip to Kansas and Oklahoma. He visited a sister, Mrs. C. C. Hood, at Liberal, Kan., a nephew of Fred Hood, at Kennebuc, Okla., and another sister, Mrs. Samuel Holmes, at Oklahoma City, all of whom were former Maryville residents.

Two Suits Filed in Court.

Two suits were filed Friday in the circuit clerk's office. One was the St. Joseph Plow company vs. J. W. Holt, for $150 note. The other was the Wyeth Auto and Supply Co. against Floyd Miller for $423.90 on a note.

George Shoptaugh of Elmo, C. D. Hocker of Guilford, Judge Fast of Burlington Junction, Hugh McClurg of Pickering and Madison Young of St. Joseph were transacting business in the city Friday.

Traded Farm for Hardware Store.

W. G. Pruitt traded Thursday his 160-acre farm one mile northeast of Elmo to Carpenter & Reynolds of Clearmont for their hardware business.

Miss Golda Adcock left Thursday evening on a several weeks' visit with relatives at Webb City and Lamar, Mo., and Fort Scott, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McAllister of St. Joseph spent Thursday in Maryville on their way home from Omaha, where they made an automobile trip.

A marriage license was issued Thursday afternoon by Recorder Wray to Warren H. Malvern and Letha M. Dean of Quitman.

Mrs. Miranda Miller returned Thursday evening from a several weeks' visit in Hopkins with her son, Dr. Ed Miller, and family.

TO DISCUSS FARM PROBLEMS

WIDELY KNOWN EXPERTS TO MEET AT HUTCHINSON.

Kansas Agricultural Congress Will Study Facts and Conditions
Confronting Farmers.

Topeka, Oct. 17.—The Kansas agricultural congress at Hutchinson, No. 19 and 20, will bring together some of the most widely known experts on farm and industrial conditions in the United States. The conference was called to discuss policies and principles and to study the actual facts and conditions which confront the farmers and manufacturers.

J. H. Miller, superintendent of the extension department of the Kansas agricultural college, who is chairman of the program committee, has arranged that the congress will be divided into six sessions, three each day. Edwin Taylor, president of the congress, will sound the "keynote" of the convention in an address, "Taking Stock and Seeing Present Limitations." The shortcomings of the state will be shown and remedies sought.

Following President Taylor, Prof. L. E. Call of the agricultural college will handle the state's soil problems, and Dean F. W. Blackmar of the Kansas University will discuss the cost of living. Those subjects then will be open for a general debate.

F. D. Coburn, secretary of the state board of agriculture, will preside over the afternoon session. Prof. E. H. Webster of the agricultural college will make an address on the live stock industry. The session will close with a general discussion.

President Taylor will preside over the closing session Thursday night, when the governor-elect will review the work of the congress and discuss needed legislation.

The Hutchinson Commercial club is planning to look after 3,000 delegates.

WOMEN STARTED A TOWN ROW

Crusade Against Gambling Develops
Much Bitterness Between Business Men and Officials.

Larned, Kan., Oct. 17.—At a stormy session of the Larned business men the anti-gamblers' crusade was reviewed and the alleged misuse of city funds discussed.

Following the arrest of a number of citizens several days ago the council ordered an audit of the police records and as a result of the report dismissed B. Y. Davis, chief of police, and requested the resignation of B. F. Brubaker, police judge. Davis and the city attorney, G. W. Finney, came to blows in the mayor's office in a discussion of the report. The crusade was started by the Women's Anti-Gambling association.

COLLEGE PLAYS START ROMANCE

Missouri University Theatrical Productions Result in Weddings for Two Couples.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 17.—The production of college musical comedies has given the University of Missouri its second romance.

Following the announcement a few days ago of the coming wedding of Miss Josephine Hale of Carrollton, Mo., and George Boyle of Kansas City, both principals in the students' musical comedy, "The Land of the Torador," presented last year, now comes the news of the engagement of Miss Elsie Warren of Kansas City to Stephen Owen of St. Joseph. Both Miss Warren and Mr. Owen had leading parts in "Hundred Dollar Bill," the play produced by the same organization of students year before last.

YOUTHFUL ELOPERS LOCATED

Moberly Couple, Who Ran Away in August Found in Michigan—Boy's Father Starts After Him.

Moberly, Mo., Oct. 17.—"Bennie" Pigg and Miss Romona Randolph, the young Moberly couple who eloped from Sauk City, Wis., in R. C. Pigg's motor car, August 27, have just been located in Trenton, Mich. A letter received here says they are well and both are working. R. C. Pigg, father of the boy, who is only 17 years old, left for Trenton and probably will bring the elopers back with him.

Leaped From a Car Window.
San Bernardino, Cal., Oct. 17.—Mrs. John L. Campbell, supposed to be from Alma, Mich., leaped through a window of an Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway sleeping car in the night as the train was approaching Barstow. On her was found pinned a note requesting the authorities to notify Newton Stillwell of Millersburg, O.

Methodist Church Burns.
Fredonia, Kan., Oct. 17.—The Methodist church here, constructed in 1899 at a cost of $8,000, burned to the ground. The building was insured for $5,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The congregation recently raised $10,000 to enlarge the church and the money will be used to rebuild.

To Shorten Hatpins.

Boston, Oct. 17.—Because of numerous complaints made to him, Mayor Fitzgerald will send to the next meeting of the city council the draft of an ordinance which will limit the length of hatpins to be worn by women on the streets and in public conveyances to six inches.

COURT UPHOLDS PROGRESSIVES

MISSOURI BALLOT WILL CARRY ROOSEVELT ELECTORS.

Supreme Court Rules Frank H. Farris Has Right to Place on Democratic Ticket.

Jefferson City, Oct. 17.—By order of six judges of the supreme court the state and presidential electoral tickets of the Progressive party were placed upon the official ballot by the secretary of state and certified to the various county clerks and the election officials of the large cities.

The ruling of the court was announced by Chief Justice Leroy B. Vaillant, who said from the bench that the court was unanimous in its finding, except that Judge John Kennish, a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket, had disqualifyed himself and did not sit.

In the matter of the application of Frank H. Farris of Rolla for a mandamus against the secretary of state to compel the secretary to place his name upon the Democratic ballot as a presidential elector at large, the court held that Farris was entitled to the writ.

The ruling in favor of the Progressive ticket was in the mandamus suit instituted against the board of election commissioners of St. Louis by David T. Punch and Harry Wilson, Progressive candidates for the legislature from the Sixth St. Louis district.

The Republican election commissioners, Harry Blodgett and Henry Kortjohn, refused to permit their names to be placed upon the official ballot, while the two Democratic commissioners voted in their favor.

President Taylor will preside over the closing session Thursday night, when the governor-elect will review the work of the congress and discuss needed legislation.

The Hutchinson Commercial club is planning to look after 3,000 delegates.

Their Horse Ran Away.

Misses Emma and Josephine Jensen, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jensen, living near Wilcox, met with quite an experience Wednesday that came near being a serious one. They drove to the home of John Taylor, living northwest of Maryville, on an errand, and while Miss Emma Jensen was waiting out in the buggy for her sister an automobile passed her horse and buggy from behind. Her horse took fright and ran away, running behind the auto. The animal ran for a quarter of a mile before the buggy upset. The auto party stopped and helped Miss Jensen, taking her back to the Taylor home. She was not badly injured, but is severely bruised. The horse ran for two miles before it could be stopped, the buggy suffering badly from the long run.

Work Commenced on Lee Road.

Work commenced Friday on the improving of the Lee road, east of Maryville. The road is to be improved for a mile and a half, and when completed will be one of the best roads in the county, $2,000 having been spent on it. The plan of improving the road will be that suggested by W. C. Davidson, state deputy highway engineer.

Went to Princeton.

Miss Hettie Anthony of the domestic science department and Prof. John E. Cameron of the agricultural department of the Normal, went to Princeton, Mo., where they will appear Friday before the Mercer county teachers' meeting.

To Make Survey of Ditch.

At a meeting of the board of the 102 drainage ditch held Friday morning, it was decided to hire F. L. Flynt to make an estimate as to the cost and also a survey of the ditch for a dredge boat.

Expression of Thanks.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly gave their sympathy and assistance to me in the bereavement of my wife.

FRED JACOBS.

A marriage license was issued in St. Joseph Thursday to Galen B. Russell and Miss Ira M. Billings of Hopkins.

Miss Mary Cooke, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Hawley, went to St. Joseph Thursday evening.

Wireless Power Generated by Hand.

A new form of generator has been developed by the United States signal corps for use with its portable wireless telegraph sets. It consists of a small generator, the motor of which is driven by hand cranks through a suitable gearing. Two cranks are provided, so that two men may drive the motor at the same time, and if necessary four men may be employed—two at each handle. Low and high speed releases are provided, which disengage the driving gear when the speed rises above or falls below a predetermined limit, so that the motor may be kept at a fairly constant speed. The generator is capable of turning out about 200 watts, and it is light enough to be packed on a mule. The portable generating set has a sending capacity of about 15 miles.

THERE'S OIL IN IOWA

BLANCHARD IS SOMEWHAT EXCITED OVER DEVELOPMENTS.

GOOD OIL DISCOVERED

Tests Will Be Made to See if It Is Commercial Oil in Paying Quantities.

Blanchard, Ia., has discovered oil and has ample proof that a large pool of oil is beneath the surface of that town. The prospects seem favorable for an early development of the oil. Blanchard is the first town northwest of Elmo on the Wabash. The following is what the State Line Herald in this week's issue says:

The few developments at the oil well is causing more interest each day, and proving to the people that oil in this vicinity is no longer imagination, but a fact.

In order that proof as to where the great amount of oil comes from, the well was pumped dry Monday, and water taken from the tube which extends to the rock 150 feet below the well proper. This tube goes down to the artesian basin below, causing a continual flow of water into the main well. Water taken from this tube to the amount of a pailful, after setting a few moments, showed a one-eighth inch of oil had arose to the top, proving a large per cent of oil.

Water taken from the tube at different times showed different percentages of oil, but all tests have more fully proven that oil does exist at no great depth in this vicinity.

After these investigations had been made, the large tank was examined. In this tank was about four inches of oil, which would make about fifty barrels, all of which had accumulated during the three weeks intervening between this time and when the tank was drained. This is exclusive of several times that amount carried away by engines taking water at the tank, thus proving that a great amount of oil lies below the surface.

Engineers report that water taken from the tank and used in their engines shows as high as three inches of oil in the water gauges after a short run, and for this reason will not take water at Blanchard if they can avoid it. This is further proof that oil in paying quantities awaits the man who will go down after it.

While the oil has not as yet been sufficiently analyzed to give any definite statement as to its value, it is said to closely resemble the celebrated Mecca oil, taken at the wells in Mecca, O., which is unsurpassed as a lubricating oil, and also produces a medicinal property which is very valuable.

This oil has an odor similar to coal oil, but it does not resemble it in its crude form, as this oil comes from the ground apparently partially refined and ready for use, both for burning in lamps and as a valuable machine oil. It burns as readily and freely in lamps as coal oil, and produces a brilliant light.

While one process of refining petroleum is with water, it is very probable that this oil goes through a refining process by coming up through the water on its way to the surface.

After standing a while another kind of oil, evidently of lighter weight, apparently separates from the bulk of oil and rises to the top, forming a skin over it, thus proving that there are different properties in it which will take a thorough analysis to determine.

It is also noted that a large amount of a white substance has accumulated in the tank, which is supposed to be paraffin, a valuable substance, that is easily separated from crude oil.

Men from different parts of the country have called at the well and carried away many samples. One man from Tarkio offered financial aid any time that a company would be formed to prospect. Such a company will be formed if analysis shows that it is a commercial oil that can be marketed.

A report just received from a sample sent to Chicago is that this oil contains a greater per cent of gasoline than any yet discovered.

WONDERFUL RECORD

IS MADE BY A HEN IN NATIONAL EGG LAYING CONTEST.

260 EGGS IN 11 MONTHS

The Contest at Mountain Grove Will End November 1, and Another One Will Start the 15th.

A national egg laying contest, with the state of Missouri acting as referee, is drawing to a close at Mountain Grove, Mo., with more than six hundred hens in the race, after a laying marathon which has lasted almost a year. More than thirty varieties of poultry from many sections of the United States and some from Canada are entered.

The contest, which began November 1, 1911, will close November 1, with many remarkable scores in prospect. A White Plymouth Rock hen has a credit of 260 eggs in eleven months, and if the bird keeps up the pace the achievement will stand out as one of the best, if not the best, ever officially recorded. A hen which lays two hundred eggs in a year is in an extremely fast class.

So great has been the interest over the country in the egg laying contest here that a second national contest to begin November 15 has been arranged under the auspices of the Missouri state poultry board, to continue a year. Seven hundred birds have been entered. They come from England and Canada as well as from over the United States.

Information of great value to poultry raisers in feeding, breeding, housing and general poultry management are resulting from the contests. The knowledge gained will be published in a bulletin to be issued by the Missouri poultry board.

It has been found as a result of the contest that strain rather than breed is the thing which counts in poultry. It is the laying strain which produces the eggs. No particular breed has shown pre-eminence. Good results have come from a system of feeding and poultry management adopted at the poultry experiment station.

Twenty-nine hens have laid more than two hundred eggs in eleven months. Next to the White Plymouth Rock which laid 260 eggs in eleven months is a Barred Plymouth Rock, with a record of 239 eggs. Then comes a Rhode Island Red with a score of 238 eggs. Other birds with high averages for the eleven months are: A Rhode Island Red, 238 eggs; an Ancona, 230 eggs; a White Leghorn, 224 eggs; a Barred Plymouth Rock, 220 eggs; a White Wyandotte, 216 eggs; a Silver Wyandotte, 215 eggs; a White Orpington, 213 eggs; a Golden Wyandotte, 209 eggs.

The Missouri poultry experiment station at Mountain Grove is the largest in the United States, although established less than two years. T. E. Quisenberry, who took charge of the station, concluded that the "goods" delivered by the hen, rather than the beauty of her coat and perfection of her feathers, was the measure of the fowl's real value. So he started the national egg laying contest, whose first year has proven a success beyond all expectations. Egg laying contests in the United States represent a new departure in promoting the utility of poultry. They have become a regular institution in Australia, where they have done much for the poultry industry.

Mrs. J. J. Barr and daughter, Sylvia, and her sister, Miss Minda Ramige, went to St. Joseph Friday morning to spend the day.

Mrs. L. Reeves of Lenox, Ia., and Mrs. J. Moses of St. Louis arrived Thursday evening to be the guests for a few days of Mrs. Laura Beaman.

GREATEST THINGS TALKED GOOD ROADS

HOPKINS MINISTER GETS VIEWS OF HIS CONGREGATION.

LOVE, HOME AND HEALTH A BOND ISSUE DISCUSSED

Lend in the Replies to His Question, "What Are the Three Greatest Things in Life?"

Rev. H. M. Baker, pastor of the First Christian church of Hopkins, says the Journal, has just completed a work which has aroused great interest in the town and which proves that Hopkins is alive in trying to better conditions. For the last two weeks the pastor has been gathering together the opinions of Hopkinsites on the "Three Greatest Things in Life." Quite a large number of the residents "voted," and last Sunday night the church was crowded to its utmost capacity with an interested audience to hear the opinions read and discussed by Rev. Baker, whose talks are always interesting and edifying.

After the votes had been counted and the different subjects classified, the pastor gave a talk on the various answers.

Here is the list that was submitted:

Life, liberty, Obedience to parents, home, church, Power and love of Jesus, Faith, Bible, friends, education, love, see children raised right, hope, honesty, children, will of God, health, Christianity, mother, truth, loyalty, cheerfulness, to live right, nature, labor.

According to the votes, love, home, and health are the three greatest blessings in life—love receiving 16 votes, home 15 and health 13.

In discussing love, Rev. Baker declared that it always gives and always gives the best. Love ennobles and always demands growth and concentration. It prompts to the consummation of its power—the sacrifice of its power—the sacrifice of itself.

Love's essence of all things. Tis from love that beauty springs. Twas by love creation first into glorious beauty burst. Spirit sweet—all else above—Love is God since God is love.

Love with all your heart and soul; Love with eye and ear and touch. That's the moral of the whole. You can never love too much.

Love is life's end; an end but never ending;

All joys, all sweets, all happiness awaiting.

Love's life's wreath (ne'er spent but ever spending),

Love's life's reward, rewarded in rewarding.

Then from thy wretched heart fond care remove.

Ah, should'st thou live but once love's sweets to prove,

Thou wilt not love to live unless thou live to love.

He spoke of health as the greatest gift to mankind—reading the following lines from Tomson:

Of what avail the largest gift of heaven,

When drooping health and spirits go amiss?

How tasteless then whatever then be given,

Health is the vital principle of bliss.

In speaking of home, Rev. Baker gave the following reason why it is so powerful. Home, he declared, is the place of sacred memories—father, mother, pictures of childhood, etc. It's the palace of inspiration—many a boy having been helped to places of honor and trust by the sweet memories of home. It's the palace of peace and rest—"home, sweet home."

The world moves on, its progress brings,

Grand reforms, undreamed of things. But nothing modern can fill the place Of the dear old home and mother's face.

With the same letter heaven and home begin,

And the words dwell together in the mind,

For they who would a home in heaven win

Must first a heaven in home begin to find.

During the evening two special solos were given by Miss Cleo Kime, "Home Sweet Home," and "Love's Old Sweet Song," both of which were very beautifully and sympathetically rendered.

The service did not conclude until 10 o'clock, but the large audience did not grow weary, all present seeming to enter heartily into the spirit of the great meeting.

Various Societies of the Protestant Churches Will Meet Sunday Evening.

The various societies of the Protestant churches will meet Sunday evening in the auditorium of the First M. E. church at 6:30 o'clock. The subject of the evening will be "Christian Sociability," and the leader will be Miss Mary Evans. H. J. Becker will give a solo, and a quartet composed of Misses Irene Kemp, Izaro Mutz, Jeannette Mutz and Amy Clark will sing. Several talks will be given by representatives from the other societies. The union services will close at 7:30 o'clock, in time for the regular services at the churches.

ON A LONG WALK

FROM LENOX, IA., TO KANSAS CITY OVERLAND.

MAKE EXPENSES ON ROAD

Miss Mabel Brown and Miss June Giles Are Thoroughly Enjoying Novel Experience.

Miss Mabel Brown and Miss June Giles of Lenox, Ia., arrived in Maryville Thursday evening about 5 o'clock over the Saints Highway and stopped over night at the Linville.

The young ladies are walking from Lenox to Kansas City by the way of the Saints highway, simply for a much needed outing from their employment. Not wishing to bear the expense of a railway trip, they agreed on this manner of a vacation several weeks ago. They are making their expenses by taking orders for dustless dusters and electric silver polishing cloths. They took several orders in Maryville Friday morning before starting out of the city, about 10 o'clock. They are meeting with pleasant experiences along the way, and are treated finely wherever they stop. They spent Wednesday night in Pickering, and, of course, the news of their presence and the manner of their travel was soon telephoned about the country, and when they came near a farm house below Pickering Thursday about noon a boy from the home came out and invited them to stop for dinner. He was so cordial in extending the invitation that they accepted. When they arrived at the house they found a company of seven men preparing to partake of dinner.

The boy told his father of the company he had invited to take dinner with them and they were made most welcome. The mother had left a well prepared dinner for her husband and on and father, and the extra men that were coming to help with some farm work, and had gone to spend the day with a neighbor. They were asked to remain until the lady of the house should come home, but as her arrival would be late in the afternoon they concluded to continue their walk to Maryville.

The young women are fine looking and well dressed. They wore dark gray jacket suits and black beaver hats, and carried small knapsacks. The ladies on whom they called in our city Friday morning in making their sales were impressed with their nice appearance and refinement.

WAS A GOOD SALE.

Good Prices Received For Hogs at the Garrett and Kemp Poland-China Sale.

The Poland-China hog sale of W. O. Garrett and M. D. Kemp held Thursday afternoon at Mr. Garrett's farm was a success and good prices were received. Fifty hogs were sold and the males averaged $26.25, while the females brought $22.75. All of the pigs were spring pigs and not over seven months old, and were all sold to Nodaway county farmers. R. P. Hosmer cried the sale.

It is thought by the physicians that today is the crisis in the colonel's condition, and a dispatch from Chicago late this afternoon stated that Roosevelt was improving and as yet there has been nothing to indicate other complications.

The Baptist Meetings.

Interest is steadily increasing in the meetings at the First Baptist church. The minister, Rev. Miles Smith, preached his best sermon so far Thursday night, his subject, "The Valley of Decision." One professed faith in Christ and was received for baptism, and several others are personally interested.

The subject for the sermon tonight will be "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

The afternoon meetings are very earnest and the spirit of prayer seems to be increasing. All are invited to attend.

GOD IS NOT MOCKED

REV. RANDOLPH PREACHED GOOD SERMON LAST NIGHT.

A MAN REAPS AS HE SOWS

Caring for Estates and Neglecting the Children an Unpardonable Sin, Says the Minister.

Last night at the Southern Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. J. D. Randolph, preached on the subject, "God Is Not Mocked." A good congregation was present. The text was a familiar one. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap."

The speaker said in part:

In this text we have set forth both the nature and the method of God's punishment for sin. Sin carries with it its own punishment. Sin puts into motion a certain series of acts the influence of which goes on in ever increasing circles. It multiplies like seed planted in good soil. With all its awful consequences it comes back to him who sets it in motion. Stealing begets stealing. Hate creates hatred. Murder leads to murder. Adultery is the parent of adultery. We had just as well try to escape the law of gravitation as God's great law that whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap.

A parent can't sow neglect of his children and reap the benefits of carelessness. A father's chief business ought to be the training of his children. Many men ask themselves how much time can I share from my business to devote to my children. He ought to ask how much time can I take from my child to give to my business. To leave a child money is a poor return for having neglected his mental and spiritual life. Some one has said, "If I had a boy and a hundred thousand dollars, I would keep them as far apart as possible." Bishop Chandler said, "A great many men are going to leave behind a great estate for their boy but no boy for their estate." I am old fashioned enough to believe that no parent has done his duty by his child who has not reared him under the influence of a family alter where daily prayer is offered. God is not mocked: whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap.

Following the sermon an invitation was given to all that wished to live better lives to come forward. Nearly all the congregation responded, pledging themselves to more active work during the revival.

Presiding Elder Briggs of St. Joseph arrived in Maryville Friday noon and will preach the sermon this evening at the church. His subject will be "Saving the Lost."

ROOSEVELT TO GO HOME TUESDAY

The condition of Col. Theodore Roosevelt is a little better today, and the physicians stated that as far as they know now Mr. Roosevelt would be able to go to his home in Oyster Bay on Monday or Tuesday. They also said that it would be necessary for Mr. Roosevelt to rest a week after getting to his home.

It is thought by the physicians that today is the crisis in the colonel's condition, and a dispatch from Chicago late this afternoon stated that Roosevelt was improving and as yet there has been nothing to indicate other complications.

Obituary.

Robert William Stonehocker was born in Ohio, April 25, 1847. Died at Guilford, Mo., Oct. 15, 1912. Age 65 years, 5 months, 20 days.

He came to Nodaway county, Missouri, in 1880, and has resided near Barnard up to the time of his departure. He was first married to Sarah Rasco, and to this union were born four children, but only one survives to mourn the loss, namely, Mrs. Oran Lanning.

His first wife having died in 1896 he was again married to Lola Job of Stanberry, Mo. To this union were born two children, Murrel Pauline and Bruce Fulton. All survive him.

He lived for many years on his farm, north of Barnard, but on account of failing health he was persuaded to retire from the farm and move to Guilford in hope that rest might again restore him to health. For a time this seemed possible, but on the 23d day of August he was taken sick and gradually grew worse until 9:30 o'clock p.m. of October 15, when his spirit took its flight to God, who gave it. He united with the M. E. church in 1881 at Barnard. The funeral services were conducted at Barnard by the Rev. W. E. Royston, October 17th, and his remains were laid to rest in a cemetery nearby.

He leaves his wife, three children, also one half-brother, as well as many other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Mrs. Joseph Wirth and children of Clyde, who have been visiting Misses Mary and Hannah Shea, returned home Friday.

Miss Leah Paulson of Story City, Ia., is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. P. Reuland.

Dinner Guests at "Fairview."

Mrs. J. T. Linville was the hostess of a 12 o'clock dinner Friday. Her guests included Mrs. Milton Rittenour and Miss Eva Rittenour and their guests, Mrs. J. Wesley Jones and Mrs. Roy Buck of Loveland, Col., and Mrs. G. E. Holmes.

Was a Lovely Reception.

One hundred and seventy-five guests thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful reception given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles T. Bell, for it was a rare October day. Assisting the hostess in receiving were Mrs. Lafe C. Allender of Atlantic, Ia., who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Wallis, Sr., and Mrs. Ernest Alexander of Medicine Lodge, Kan., a guest at the home of her father, Joseph Jackson, Sr. The guests passed on to the library from the reception hall, where they were served hot chocolate and sandwiches by Miss Bertha Beal and Mrs. Victor L. Moore, assisted by Miss Elsie Jackson and Miss Laura Barmann. In the dining room, where ice cream and cake were served, Mrs. J. F. Colby, Mrs. Will Wallis, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr., and Mrs. George B. Baker, presided, assisted by Miss Mildred Robinson, Miss Ruby Curnutt and Miss Geneva Wilfley. The hostesses in the parlors were Mrs. James B. Robinson, Mrs. J. D. Richey, Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, Mrs. R. G. Sanders and Mrs. W. A. Rickenbode. The rooms were beautiful in their decorations of cosmos, chrysanthemums and ferns. The colors of yellow, white and green prevailed in the dining room.

Entertained Neighboring Club.

The Dew Drop Inn club very delightfully entertained the Ladies' Intellectual club at the home of Mrs. Albert Orme, Wednesday, October 16, between the hours of 2 and 5 in the afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harry Farrar. Roll call was responded to by memory gems. The business session was set aside and an address of welcome given by Mrs. Claude Moore, that would make any visitor from anywhere feel at home. Mrs. Moore concluded with the following lines:

"We welcome you, Intellectual; may our meeting be effectual. And unless we burst our tires, with so many live wires, these two clubs are sure to win, the Intellectual and Dew Drop Inn."

A splendid program was rendered, consisting of readings, declamations and music. Mrs. Elmer Baker recited these verses:

"In 1911, one summer's day, at Elmer Baker's, across the way, a little band of women came to seek the way of fun and fame. Their lives were filled with toil and care, and they sought a way by which to share each other's trials, and with all their skill somebody's life with joy to fill. And they in solemn conclave sat, and some said this and some said that, but all declared 'twould be no sin to say to each one, 'Dew Drop In.' So Wednesday's at 2 p.m. we meet, to talk and sing and friends to greet, and care and trouble from each soul like clouds before sunshine seems to roll. But what's this we hear? A deafening growl like the roll of a storm or a panther's howl! The voice of our husbands in loud hubbub, saying, 'We, too, must go to that club.' So, to keep them in temper nice and sweet, we changed the time for the club to meet. And from November chill 'till April, warm and bright, our meetings must come on Thursday night. When we sent the T club an invitation, did you not hear that howl of desolation? Twas those men again, who will not remember, that soon will come the month of November. But we told them quick to stop that row, for we couldn't have them around anyhow; but to stay at home and do their work, for it was not right their duty to shirk. So here we are this beautiful day, with nothing but kindly words to say to the Intellectual club, who are neat as pins, and our own dear ones, the Dew Drop Inns."

At the conclusion of the program the president called for remarks. Mrs. Rufus Ringgold responded on behalf of the Intellectual club, telling of their appreciation of the day's meeting and of the neighborly spirit that is manifested by such gatherings, and closed by saying:

"Of all the places we have been, the best of all is the Dew Drop Inn. It didn't rain and thunder and fuss as it did when you folks met with us. We were very sorry when you went away, but contented ourselves with thoughts of today, when we could be together, as we have been, and enjoy ourselves with the Dew Drop Inns."

A delightful two-course luncheon was served, the club colors, pink and white, carried out in the ices and cakes, and each one present responded to a toast.

Those present were: Mrs. Fletcher Dalby, Mrs. John Sprague, Mrs. Claud Moore, Mrs. Albert Orme, Mrs. Elmer Oliver Jones, Mrs. Harry Farrar, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Nathaniel Orme, Mrs. Albert Gorton, Mrs. Ben Ingles, Mrs. Sam Yeager, Mrs. Ben Yeager, Mrs. Sylvester Masie, Mrs. Rufus Ringgold, Mrs. Clarence Pope, Mrs. John Ringgold, Mrs. Laura Gillispie, Mrs. Earl Dowling

Will Attend State Conference.

Mrs. E. G. Orear went to Kansas City Friday morning to visit her mother, Mrs. M. A. Umethum. Mrs. Orear will remain until after the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution to be held in Kansas City the last of October. Miss Ellie Jackson, Miss Brownie Toel, Mrs. C. T. Bell and Mrs. John Cameron expect to attend this meeting.

The Ramblers Club.

The Ramblers club was out Thursday evening gathering autumn leaves with which to decorate its house meeting, which will take place Friday evening with Miss Amy Clark at the Linville hotel. The Ramblers have selected the violet for their club flower, and during their rambles Thursday evening they found a large bunch of them near the Wabash trestle. The members of the club are Mary Lewis, Vella Eooth, Olivette Godsey, Lucile Holmes, ViJune Colden, Brownie Helpley, Amy Clark and Marie Hopper.

St. Patrick's Social.

The social given Thursday night by the young ladies of St. Patrick's church parish in the church hall was largely attended and was quite a successful social affair. Games were played and Miss Charlotte Murrin won the first prize and Miss Josephine Keeler the second prize. A splendid lunch was served. During the evening the lucky number that won the white wool shawl made by Mrs. Adolph Lippman was drawn by Dennis Collins, Jr. The number was 109. Mrs. Lippman sold chances on the shawl amounting to $32.35, which went into the treasury of St. Patrick's parish school.

The Eats Stolen from Club's Banquet.

Cecil Sheldon entertained a number of the members of the Sphinx club Thursday night at his home, on West Second street, with a supper. While the supper was about ready to be served, the eats were stolen by members of the Blue Boys' club, with the assistance of a few others. Anyway, the boys had a good time, and next time they will watch more closely their grub. The boys in the party were Cecil Sheldon, Leland Andrews, Gladie Bradley, Andy Thompson, Magnus Tate, Ed Gray, Andy Cummins, Clyde Hutton, Hosick Holmes, George Kemp, with Charles Martin as chef.

STOMACH GONE BAD

SOUR, GASSY, UPSET?
When "Pape's Diaepsin" Gets in Stomach All Indigestion Goes.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eruptions of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diaepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know now it is needless to have a bad stomach.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diaepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Diaepsin belongs in your home anyway. It should be kept handy, should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night it is there to give the quickest, surest relief known.—Advertisement.

Death of a Child.

Dora L. Tripp, a year and a half old died Thursday night at 10:45 o'clock, after a few days' illness, of cholera infantum. The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Will Ulmer, and will be conducted by Rev. J. D. Randolph, pastor of the M. E. church, South. Burial will take place in Oak Hill cemetery.

DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR A BAD LIVER OR SLUGGISH BOWELS

THIS GENTLE, EFFECTIVE FRUIT LAXATIVE THOROUGHLY CLEANS YOUR STOMACH, LIVER AND 30 FEET OF BOWELS OF SOUR BILE, POISONS, GASES AND CLOGGED-UP WASTE.

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gassy, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness, pimples—take delicious Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowels.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs tonight means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without griping, nausea or weakness. It means a cheery day tomorrow—many bright days thereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself, for luscious figs, senna and aromatics cannot injure anyone.

WRITES FROM BALKANS.

Miss Kate Moss, Teaching in Bulgaria, Describes Preparation to Fight the Turks.

To Dr. H. E. Moss of Kansas City, formerly of Maryville, comes the very breath of war which is threatening to involve Europe, in the form of a letter from Miss Kate E. Moss, a sister of the physician, who left Kansas City for Bulgaria August 23.

Writing from Lavetch, Miss Moss tells the following story of the preparation for war:

"Conditions here are most unsettled. Word has come that Turkey has declared war and come into Bulgarian territory. Bulgaria has a standing army of 400,000, but is drafting every service. Five thousand recruits able-bodied men of reasonable age are expected in Lavetch today. These are to be quartered in this town, which has about 7,000 people."

"We have moved entirely out of one of the buildings which we occupied. Our old rooms are to be given to the soldiers. They also have the use of a small school building."

"Police are forbidding the sale of bread and flour to the people of the city. The banks, which belong to the government, are refusing to honor any checks. There are seventy of us, counting the girls, the teachers, the cook and the two men and their families. We have a lot of potatoes, some hogs, some pumpkins and apples on which to draw if necessary."

"We must remain here for awhile, because the government owns the railroads and is moving no trains save for soldiers. No freight has been moved for some weeks. Today I doubt if any private party could get any conveyance to carry them to the station."

"At Pleven every horse, mule and donkey has been called for and the best will be used by the army."

Miss Moss comments upon the patriotism of the people, and adds that taxes are very high in Bulgaria.

A MEASUREMENT OF MERIT.

Maryville Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Maryville, is not the testimony of strangers, But the endorsement of Maryville people.

That's the kind of proof given here—The statement of a Maryville citizen, J. A. Murphy, 805 East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I suffered considerably from kidney trouble and lumbago. I got up in the morning so stiff and lame, with such a dull aching across my loins that I could hardly do my work. I suffered a great deal from kidney trouble whenever I caught cold, and the kidney secretions were dark and filled with sediment. My health failed and I was miserable, when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box of this remedy at Love's drug store (now Love & Gough's drug store), and it went at once to the seat of my trouble and corrected it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Advertisement.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

Visitor From the Philippines.

Mrs. Guerdon O'Dougherty and son, John O'Dougherty, of Bedford, Iowa, and their guests, Mrs. Frank Sperbeck and little daughter, Stana, of Manila, P. I., spent Friday in Maryville on business. Mrs. Sperbeck and her little girl came for the purpose of spending a few days with her childhood friend, Mrs. F. B. Dinsmore of South Buchanan street, but Mrs. Dinsmore left Maryville the first of the week on a visit to her sisters in Atchison, Kan., and Kansas City. Mrs. Sperbeck expects to return to Manila before long. She went to St. Joseph Friday evening to visit her brother, Henry O'Dougherty. She was compelled to return to the United States a year ago on account of the illness of her little girl, who was unable to stand the climate of Manila. She has been taking treatment in a hospital of St. Paul, Minn., and is now thoroughly well and will be able to return. Mrs. Sperbeck's husband is first Lieutenant of a United States army scouting company stationed at Manila. She has two other brothers living at Bedford, Patrick and Guerdon O'Dougherty.

"We have moved entirely out of one of the buildings which we occupied. Our old rooms are to be given to the soldiers. They also have the use of a small school building."

"Police are forbidding the sale of bread and flour to the people of the city. The banks, which belong to the government, are refusing to honor any checks. There are seventy of us, counting the girls, the teachers, the cook and the two men and their families. We have a lot of potatoes, some hogs, some pumpkins and apples on which to draw if necessary."

Case Set for Next Week.

United States Deputy Marshal Smith of St. Joseph was in Maryville Thursday afternoon interviewing Miss Lottie Pool, who is in the city jail here serving out her time as a result of jumping her bond. The white slavery charge against Ben Carson is to come up in St. Joseph next week, and the woman here is alleged to be connected with it.

The noted Rabbi Hirsch had arisen to give his seat to a lady, but before she could take it a burly young fellow slid into it. The rabbi looked very meaningly at him, and, after an uncomfortable silence, the young fellow finally blurted out: "Well, what are you glaring at me for? Want to eat me? Eh?" "No," calmly replied the rabbi, "I am forbidden to eat you—I am a Jew."

Some household and kitchen furniture. Larned, Kan., Oct. 17.—At a stormy session of the Larned business men the anti-gamblers' crusade was reviewed and the alleged misuse of city funds discussed.

Following the arrest of a number of citizens several days ago the council ordered an audit of the police records and as a result of the report dismissed B. Y. Davis, chief of police, and requested the resignation of H. F. Brumaker, police judge. Davis and the city attorney, G. W. Finney, came to blows in the mayor's office in a discussion of the report. The crusade was started by the Women's Anti-Gambling association.

TO DISCUSS FARM PROBLEMS

WIDELY KNOWN EXPERTS TO MEET AT HUTCHINSON.

Kansas Agricultural Congress Will Study Facts and Conditions Confronting Farmers.

Topeka, Oct. 17.—The Kansas agricultural congress at Hutchinson, Nov. 12 and 13, will bring together some of the most widely known experts on farm and industrial conditions in the United States. The conference was called to discuss policies and principles and to study the actual facts and conditions which confront the farmers and manufacturers.

J. H. Miller, superintendent of the extension department of the Kansas agricultural college who is chairman of the program committee, has arranged that the congress will be divided into six sessions, three each day. Edwin Taylor, president of the congress, will sound the "keynote" of the convention in an address, "Taking Stock and Seeing Present Limitations." The shortcomings of the state will be shown and remedies sought.

Following President Taylor, Prof. L. E. Call of the agricultural college will preside over the afternoon session. Prof. E. H. Webster of the agricultural college will make an address on the live stock industry. The session will close with a general discussion.

P. D. Coburn, secretary of the state board of agriculture, will preside over the afternoon session. Prof. E. H. Webster of the agricultural college will make an address on the live stock industry. The session will close with a general discussion.

President Taylor will preside over the closing session Thursday night, when the governor-elect will review the work of the congress and discuss needed legislation.

The Hutchinson Commercial club is planning to look after 3,000 delegates.

COLLEGE PLAYS START ROMANCE

Missouri University Theatrical Productions Result in Weddings for Two Couples.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 17.—The production of college musical comedies has given the University of Missouri its second romance.

Following the announcement a few days ago of the coming wedding of Miss Josephine Hale of Carrollton, Mo., and George Boyle of Kansas City, both principals in the students' musical comedy, "The Land of the To- reader," presented last year, now comes the news of the engagement of Miss Elsie Warren of Kansas City to Stephen Owen of St. Joseph. Both Miss Warren and Mr. Owen had dead parts in "Hundred Dollar Bill," the play produced by the same organization of students year before last.

YOUTHFUL ELOPERS LOCATED

Moberly Couple, Who Ran Away in August Found in Michigan—Boy's Father Starts After Him.

Moberly, Mo., Oct. 17.—"Bennie" Pigg and Miss Romona Randolph, the young Moberly couple who eloped from Sauk City, Wis., in R. C. Pigg's motor car, August 27, have just been located in Trenton, Mich. A letter received here says they are well and both are working. R. C. Pigg, father of the boy, who is only 17 years old, left for Trenton and probably will bring the elopers back with him.

Leaped From a Car Window, San Bernardino, Cal., Oct. 17.—Mrs. John L. Campbell, supposed to be from Alma, Mich., leaped through a window of an Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway sleeping car in the night as the train was approaching Barstow. On her was found pinned a note requesting the authorities to notify Newton Stillwell of Millersburg, O.

Methodist Church Burns, Fredonia, Kan., Oct. 17.—The Methodist church here, constructed in 1899 at a cost of $8,000, burned to the ground. The building was insured for $5,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The congregation recently raised $10,000 to enlarge the church and the money will be used to rebuild.

To Shorten Hatpins, Boston, Oct. 17.—Because of numerous complaints made to him, Mayor Fitzgerald will send to the next meeting of the city council the draft of an ordinance which will limit the length of hatpins to be worn by women on the streets and in public conveyances to six inches.

COURT UPHOLDS PROGRESSIVES

MISSOURI BALLOT WILL CARRY ROOSEVELT ELECTORS.

Supreme Court Rules Frank H. Farris Has Right to Place on Democratic Ticket.

Jefferson City, Oct. 17.—By order of six judges of the supreme court the state and presidential electoral tickets of the Progressive party were placed upon the official ballot by the secretary of state and certified to the various county clerks and the election officials of the large cities.

The ruling of the court was announced by Chief Justice LeRoy B. Vaillant, who said from the bench that the court was unanimous in its finding, except that Judge John Kennish, a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket, had disqualified himself and did not sit.

In the matter of the application of Frank H. Farris of Rolla for a mandamus against the secretary of state to compel the secretary to place his name upon the Democratic ballot as a presidential elector at large, the court held that Farris was entitled to the writ.

The ruling in favor of the Progressive ticket was in the mandamus suit instituted against the board of election commissioners of St. Louis by David T. Punch and Harry Wilson, Progressive candidates for the legislature from the Sixth St. Louis district. The Republican election commissioners, Harry Bioggett and Henry Kortjohn, refused to permit their names to be placed upon the official ballot, while the two Democratic commissioners voted in their favor. A writ of mandamus was awarded against the election board in favor of Punch and Wilson.

Their Horse Ran Away.

Misses Emma and Josephine Jensen, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jensen, living near Wilcox, met with quite an experience Wednesday that came near being a serious one. They drove to the home of John Taylor, living northwest of Maryville, on an errand, and while Miss Emma Jensen was waiting out in the buggy for her sister an automobile passed her horse and buggy from behind. Her horse took fright and ran away, running behind the auto. The animal ran for a quarter of a mile before the buggy upset. The auto party stopped and helped Miss Jensen, taking her back to the Taylor home. She was not badly injured, but is severely bruised. The horse ran for two miles before it could be stopped, the buggy suffering badly from the long run.

Work Commenced on Lee Road.

Work commenced Friday on the improving of the Lee road, east of Maryville. The road is to be improved for a mile and a half, and when completed will be one of the best roads in the county, $2,000 having been spent on it. The plan of improving the road will be that suggested by W. C. Davidson, state deputy highway engineer.

Went to Princeton.

Miss Hettie Anthony of the domestic science department and Prof. John E. Cameron of the agricultural department of the Normal, went to Princeton, Mo., where they will appear Friday before the Mercer county teachers meeting.

To Make Survey of Ditch.

At a meeting of the board of the 102 drainage ditch held Friday morning, it was decided to hire F. L. Flynt to make an estimate as to the cost and also a survey of the ditch for a dredge boat.

Miss Mary Cooke, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Hawley, went to St. Joseph Thursday evening.

Wireless Power Generated by Hand.

A new form of generator has been developed by the United States Signal Corps for use with its portable wireless telegraph sets. It consists of a small generator, the motor of which is driven by hand cranks through a suitable gearing. Two cranks are provided, so that two men may drive the motor at the same time, and if necessary four men may be employed—two at each handle. Low and high speed releases are provided, which disengage the driving gear when the speed rises above or falls below a predetermined limit, so that the motor may be kept at a fairly constant speed. The generator is capable of turning out about 200 watts, and it is light enough to be packed on a mule.

The portable generating set has a sending capacity of about 15 miles.
